Message from Mrs Ruane

As we approach the beginning of the final half term, I have been reflecting on the year in preparation for our new academic year. We share so many successes after having our recent OFSTED inspection and our Inclusion flagship reaccreditation. Most importantly, our inclusive environment and aspiration for all children to succeed academically and pastorally has been recognised. Our teachers have done an astounding job of teaching our new phonics programme and curriculum with passion and our children are gaining a deep and thorough knowledge. We will continue to move forward and build upon our strong foundations to give all of our children the very best start to their education.

This half term is very short and very busy! We look forward to all of the events to celebrate our Year 2 children who will be moving on this year. We also celebrate our EYFS and Year 1 children who have settled and grown so much this year – their confidence and resilience amaze me and I am sure they will do the same in their new classes next year. Soon, we will be welcoming our new EYFS families who will be joining us in August 2025.

I appreciate that change can be unsettling for children and parents/carers. School staff are working hard to arrange classes and staffing for next year. Please be assured that we take our time and have lots of staff discussion to get the new class arrangements right for all. You will be notified of children's new classes on transition day.

Year 2 families: any queries/questions about Year 3 need to be directed to the Junior School as we are two separate schools.

Thank you for your continued support. Our doors are open to you and we appreciate feedback and working together to make our school the very best it can be.

Being part of the IQM means that we are recognised for our inclusive culture within our school. This is something we are very proud of. By being part of the IQM community, leaders have opportunities to learn from other flagship schools and from national inclusion initiatives. This means we can stay up to date with research and strategies and continue to improve our inclusive community.
